Public Computer Access and Free and Open Wireless Internet Access Available

The Kansas Library eCard provides Kansas residents access to all statewide databases and digital services, including the access to downloadable audiobooks & ebooks.

- The Kansas State Library Digital Book eLending website is the statewide portal to downloadable digital content. The site can be accessed online at: https://kslib.info/128/Digital-BookeLending
- The Digital Book eLending site provides tutorials and links to additional software downloads needed to access and use the RBdigital downloadable audiobooks, Cloud Library eBooks collections, Freading eBooks, Enki eBooks, Britannica E-STAX, and BookFlix e-books for kids.
- With this information and your Kansas Library eCard, you can browse and search hundreds of great titles and download them to your computer or to a portable device for your reading and listening pleasure.

The Kansas Library eCard requires a personal identification number (PIN) which is used to access the statewide online services. The PIN may be obtained from any PWRL library location – users just need to request the card and get signed-up!

Once you are registered, go to the Kansas Library Card website above, type in your PIN and your birth date (MMDDYYYY), and gain access to the statewide online resources.
